

Directions to JJJ Wilderness Ranch from Augusta

When you leave the charming small town of Augusta, you'll be on a gravel road leading into the mountains – the scenery is spectacular as you see the famous Rocky Mountain Front and then wind through the Sun River Canyon. Situated at the end of the road in Mortimer Gulch at 5200 feet elevation, the Triple J is surrounded by rugged mountain beauty with our own private view to Mortimer Peak. The Ranch is surrounded on 3 sides by the Lewis & Clark National Forest.

Located in the scenic corridor between Yellowstone and Glacier National Park, we are about 4 hours north of Yellowstone and 2 hours south of Glacier. Montana is a large state geographically with so much to see and do. Many plan trips to Yellowstone/and or Glacier before or after their stay with us.

Directions:

1. In Augusta, turn onto Manix Street from Main Street.
2. Manix Street turns into Sun Canyon Road. Follow Sun Canyon Road for about 3.7 miles
